

The Icy Blast

The Editors perspective on frozen toes.....

Actually frozen toes really wasn't an issue because despite freezing weather on the lead up to the icy blast, the day dawned relatively mild and only three layers of clothes were required!

A small group of us met up at McDonalds, South Hykeham, in good spirits and good time for a prompt departure at 10:45 and we duely set off down the A46 to Newark, and then onto the A1 northbound.

We made good time on this really short run, and arrived ahead of the Sherwood Chapter, immediately nabbing all the tables! Actually Lyn and Russ were there ahead of us because they came <whisper quietly>.... by car <shocked expression>!

A quick read of the menu, and orders placed we set about putting the world to rights and recovering from Christmas.

Sherwood arrived around 12:00, by which time we had pretty much eaten, so seats were vacated to allow them to get sat down for their lunch, and we all had a good old blather with them.

I guess altogether we managed around 40 people at the lunch between the two Chapters, and it was really nice to be able to finish the year with a final, if short, ride.

It was also really nice to be able to do something with our friends from Sherwood, and it would be nice to be able to do this sort of thing more often.
